Kia ora Everyone

The end of the term has arrived, and the weather seems to be holding, long may it last!

We would like to thank our Wharekai volunteers (David, Ann, Caii-Michelle, Neville, Kirsten), our gardening club (Whāea Kirsten and Leila) and a big mihi (thanks) to Whāea Ria for providing kai for our Polyfest performers.

Wharekai - We currently offer breakfast club for our children on 3 days of the week, we would like to extend this to the other days with the help of additional volunteers. Please contact the office if you are able to help from 8.15am to 9am.

Polyfest - A big mihi (thank you) to all of our tamariki for their performance last night. It was fantastic to see you all on stage, and we look forward to seeing you all again tonight. Please ensure you read the attached pānui (notice) regarding the performance tonight, the organisers of Polyfest have made it really clear that no student is allowed to leave until the end, and also Parents are not allowed in the changing area.

End of Term - School finishes on Friday at the usual time of 3pm. Have a great two week break, travel safely if you are going on holiday and we look forward to seeing you all refreshed on Monday the 23rd of July ready for Term 3.
