Kia ora Koutou,

Last week was Tongan Language Week and some classes practiced speaking and using Tongan words and phrases.

Ko tēnei te wiki ō te Reo Māori - This week is Māori Language week. Ko te kaupapa ō te wiki nei, ko 'Kia kaha te Reo Māori.' Ahakoa te aha, tu rangatira ai ki te kōrero - it's about giving it a go, no matter how big or small, just try :-). Kanuka were fortunate enough to have Whāea Ria and Matua Stephen (Matariki's Mum and Dad) come in to make parāoa parai (fried bread) with the class. We even had gluten free fried bread for our gluten free tamaiti in our class! Other classes have also been learning Māori Language this week.

Do check out the link - Ideas for Maori language Week.

Cricket— He mihi nui (A big thank you) to New Zealand Institute of Sport who spent the morning with Kauri and Tawa class introducing some new fun games along with a session of cricket.

Monday is Super Hero Day - this is a day for our tamariki to dress up and have some fun.

Speeches— We have had a change in our school diary due to our senior students having to attend their Secondary school transition days. Speeches were set for Friday the 20th of September, this has now been changed to Tuesday the 24th September at 9.30am. Sorry for any inconvenience.

Have a great week everyone.

Kia pai ōu Koutou rā, Kia kaha, kia toa, Kia Manawanui
