Principal's Message:

Kia ora Koutou,

Week 5 is here and the end of the term is looming! We welcome our new students and as of today, we have 97 students on our roll 😊😊

We would like to thank our parents for sticking to our Level 2 requirements of not being onsite and dropping and picking up students at the gates.

We welcome Whāea Kay Berry to our Kura (school) this week. Whāea Kay has a long associated history with our school, so Whāea Kay and Whāea Linda will be relieving in Kānuka until the end of the term.

Enjoy the rest of the week Whānau.

It is with deep sadness that we farewell a well respected Elder of our community. Pāpa Neville Baker was a Kaumātua, a grandfather, a strong supporter and staunch advocate for our Kura.

We send our sincerest condolences to Kōka Caii-Michelle and the Whānau Pani.

E Koro, kua karanga atu ōu Tūpuna mō tōu wairua.
E kore te mamae, e kore te mokemoke.
Tiwhatiwha te Pō, tiwhatiwha te Āo
Hāere ki roto i te aroha o te Ātua
E Koro
E moe, e moe, okioki ai i roto i te Rangimārie.

Arohanui tōu Whānau mai Te Pito o te One ♥

Māuri ora,
Whāea Trina

Rata Class Update:

Rātā class have some amazingly creative and imaginative writers! Look at these fabulous stories they wrote over the last couple of weeks.

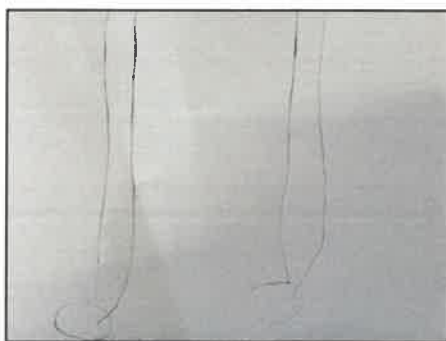

This is not an ordinary owl. It has four wings! It also has hair and has lights on his body. They shine like the stars!

This is Mr Sad. If you tell him jokes he will still be sad. "What?" said the people, "what can we do?" We can tickle him! "H, h, h, h, h, h! giggled Mr Sad." Yay, he is happy!

By Conor - Age 5

This is Mr Long and invisible. Now you are going to hear his story. Once upon a time there was Mr Long. He was invisible. Everybody didn't like Mr Long and invisible and for that they put him in jail. The people didn't see him though, so he escaped!

By Noah - Age 5

One day my dad gave me a special box. I put the box on top of the roof. I slept and slept when it was night time. But in the morning I came up to my box and I opened my special box. Inside there was gold!
